RENEWED PETITION TO REVIEW DENIAL OF REQUEST FOR REFUND

Sir:

It is requested that the denial of the Request for Refund of a Maintenance Fee that was mailed February 10, 2012, (copy attached as Exhibit 1, hereto) be reversed.

As more completely set forth in the Petition attached hereto as Exhibit 2, said petition being incorporated herein in its entirety, on January 3, 2012, the third Maintenance Fee for the above identified patent was paid as the result of a clerical error. A Request for Refund was filed on January 11, 2012 and the Request for Refund was denied on January 19, 2012.

The undersigned file a Petition (Exhibit 2, hereto) on January 26, 2012. However, the Petition was directed to the Office of Finance. In a letter dated February 10, 2012, the Office of Finance in a letter (attached hereto as Exhibit 1), indicated that the refund could not be authorized by the Receipts Accounting Division and referred the undersigned to the Office of Petitions.

Again, as more fully set forth in Exhibit 2, the facts show that the patent owner never intended that the third Maintenance Fee was to be paid and the patent owner did not pay the Maintenance Fee, and that the third Maintenance Fee was paid through an inadvertent clerical error. The provisions of 35 U.S.C. § 24(d) and 37 CFR § 1.26 do not prohibit a refund in the present situation.

For these reasons, it is requested that a refund of $4,730.00 be credited to Deposit Account No. 08-1540 or credited to the credit card ending in 3004, to which the Maintenance Fee was originally charged. Authorization is given to charge the required Petition Fee to Deposit Account No. 08-1540.

Respectfully submitted,

/Kathleen A. Costigan/

Dear Ms. Costigan:

We regret to inform you that your refund request received on 01/26/2012 in the amount of $4,730.00 covering the maintenance fee for patent number 6084190 cannot be authorized. Please see the reason(s) noted below.

- ☐ The time allowed for requesting a refund has expired. A refund based on establishment of small entity status may only be obtained if a verified statement under 37 CFR 1.27(c) and a request for a refund of the excess amount are filed within three months of the date of the timely payment of the full fee (37 CFR 1.28(a)). The three-month period is not extendable under 37 CFR 1.136.
- ☒ A change of purpose after payment of a fee will not entitle a party to a refund of such fee (37 CFR 1.26(a)). When an applicant or patentee takes an action "by mistake" (e.g., files an application or maintains a patent in force "by mistake"), the submission of fees required to take that action (e.g., a filing fee submitted with such application or a maintenance fee submitted for such patent) is not a "fee paid by mistake" within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 42(d) (MPEP 607.02).
- ☐ The refund request must be submitted by the original party that paid the fee, which is , and must be filed within one month from the date of this letter.
- ☒ Other. The Receipts Accounting Division cannot authorize this refund. Please contact the Office of Petitions at (571) 272-3282 for further assistance.

Please contact Dorethea Allen at (571) 272-6317 if you have any questions concerning this letter.

PETITION TO REVIEW DENIAL OF REQUEST FOR REFUND

Sir:

It is requested that the denial of the Request for Refund of a Maintenance Fee that was mailed January 19, 2012 be reversed.

On January 3, 2012, the third Maintenance Fee for the above identified patent was paid by mistake. A Request for Refund was filed on January 11, 2012<sup>1</sup> and the Request for Refund was denied on January 19, 2012<sup>2</sup>.

The owner of the patent had instructed a member of the undersigned's firm not to pay the Maintenance Fee by an email dated December 14, 2011.<sup>3</sup> The Declaration of

Glenda Carrasquillo<sup>4</sup> points out that she was the person who erroneously conveyed a message to the undersigned that instructions had been received to pay the third Maintenance Fee when, in fact, instructions had actually been received that the third Maintenance Fee was not to be paid. After the payment of the third Maintenance Fee, the representative of the owner of the above identified patent was notified of the payment and it was the representative's email response on January 11, 2012,<sup>5</sup> referring to the December 14, 2011 email instructions not to pay the third Maintenance Fee, which brought the error to light.

The facts show that the patent owner never intended that the third Maintenance Fee was to be paid, the patent owner did not pay the third Maintenance Fee, and that the third Maintenance Fee was paid through an inadvertent clerical error. The provisions of 35 U.S.C. § 42(d) and 37 CFR § 1.26 do not prohibit a refund in the present situation.

For these reasons, it is requested that a refund of $4,730.00 be credited to Deposit Account No. 08-1540 or credited to the credit card ending in 3004, to which the Maintenance Fee was originally charged.

Authorization is given to charge the required Petition Fee to Deposit Account No. 08-1540.

DECLARATION OF GLENDA CARRASQUILLO

I, Glenda Carrasquillo, declare that I am employed by Hedman & Costigan, P.C. as a secretary and my responsibilities include noting the receipt of instructions from clients in the docket book maintained by the firm.

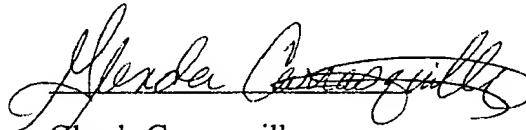

On January 3, 2012, I informed Kathleen A. Costigan, an attorney at Hedman & Costigan, P.C., that a third Maintenance Fee was due to be paid for the above identified patent on January 4, 2012. This reminder was given based on the docket book entry for January 4, 2012 that indicated that a third Maintenance Fee was due to paid and the docket book showed that instructions had been received from the client.

Kathleen A. Costigan is the individual at Hedman & Costigan, P.C. who routinely initiates the payment of Maintenance Fees for U.S. patents maintained by the firm of Hedman & Costigan, P.C. When I gave the reminder to pay the third Maintenance Fee to Kathleen A. Costigan on January 3, 2012, I did not check the actual communication received from the client and I was unaware at that time, that the client had given instructions not to pay the Maintenance Fee.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application and of any patent issued thereon.
